G: ALL AGES PERMITTED. Signifies that the film rated contains nothing most parents will consider offensive for even their youngest children to see. Nudity, sex scenes, and scenes of drug use absent: violence is minimal: snippets of dialogue may go beyond polite conversation but do not go beyond common everyday expressions.

PG: PARENTAL GUIDANCE SUGGESTED. Some materials may not be suitable for children. Signifies that the film may contain some material parents might not like their young children exposed to, material that will clearly need to be examined or inquired about before children are allowed to attend the film. Explicit sex and drug scenes are absent: nudity, if present, is seen only briefly: horror and violence do not exceed moderate levels.

PG-13: PARENTS ARE STRONGLY CAUTIONED: Some material may be inappropriate for children under 13. Signifies that the film rated may be inappropriate for pre-teens. Parents should be especially careful about letting their younger children attend. Rough or persistent violence is absent, sexually oriented nudity is generally absent, some scenes of drug use may be seen, some use of one of the harsher sexually derived words may be used.

R: UNDER 17 REQUIRED ACCOMPANYING PARENT OR ADULT GUARDIAN. Signifies that the rating board has concluded that the film may contain some adult material. Parents are urged to learn more about the film before taking their children to see it. An R may be assigned due to, among other things, a film's use of language, theme, violence, sensuality, or its portrayal to drug use.

NC-17: NO ONE UNDER 17 ADMITTED. Signifies that the rating board believes that most American parents would feel that the film rated is not appropriate for anyone under 17 years of age. Patently adult and that children under age 17 should not be admitted. The film may contain explicit sex scenes, an accumulation of sexually, oriented language, and or scenes of excessive violence. The NC-17 rating is not exactly the same as an X-rating, but unlike the X: NC-17 is a registered trademark and cannot be self-applied.

DUE TO LIMITED SEATING, GUEST LIMITS MAY BE ENFORCED.
